Let's travel together

Traveller's charter

In Brittany,
this marine, urban and rural land,
we whisper that ...

Our visitors are warmly welcomed.

The coast is wilder than the inhabitants.

We welcome waves of emotions, even in the middle of a storm.

We engrave each moment into our memory, not on stones.

We pick up our litter because it's not that much to ask.

We turn over the earth in our fields, not the fine sand on the foreshore.

We eat local food just as naturally as we enjoy a crepe.

We happily set down our drinks to dance at a fest-noz.

We watch the ballet of the egrets on tiptoe.

We rediscover our freedom without leaving the hiking trails.

Our guides enchant visitors and it's no myth.

A meeting with Brittany is shared with pride.

The Tourist Offices of Brittany welcome you.
